I self-published my first book in shame. I was disappointed that after two years of work with my top tier literary agent in New York, editors still didn't think I had a platform large enough to sell a book. So I only had a few piddly newspaper columns, and I could tell you where each one of my blog readers lived and how I knew them.

My First Kwanzaa by Karen Katz. A simple, colorful book that introduces the basic concepts and symbols of the holiday to the youngest readers. The Sound of Kwanzaa by Dimitrea Tokunbo. Another good choice for very young readers! This book defines the Swahili words that make up the seven principles and illustrates them with vibrant illustrations.
