Like in the story "Spaghetti" by Cynthia Rylant when the boy finds a kitten at a bus stop and the text said that the kitten sounded like chalk nails. A beautiful collection of touching stories about the bond humans and thier animal companions can share. She is one of my favorite authors. It was a super quick read and an animal loving book.

An excellent choice for beginning and developing readers."—School Library Journal (starred review) When Mr. Putter eats twenty-one pineapple jelly rolls, he ends up with a grumbling tummy. Worse, he can't sleep! A midnight stargazing stroll with his cat, Tabby, seems to be just the cure—but could it be that Mr. Putter and Tabby aren't the only ones who are still wide awake? This is the sixteenth in the delightful series by Cynthia Rylant, winner of a Newbery Medal and two Caldecott Honors. "Winsome and warmhearted, these books could become instant favorites."—Publishers Weekly

- Assessment rubrics, checklists, and anchor sets to evaluate students' literature responses;
- Lessons and support materials for 40 different objectives organized into four thinking strands: forming a general understanding, developing an interpretation, making reader/text connections, and examining content and structure; and
- Independent follow-up activities in oral language, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and writing that help students apply what they have learned in the shared lesson.
